AGENDA – To be updated as more details are confirmed

Monday, June 19th

- Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow: Health Informatics Trends in the Era of Digital Health

  Explore the evolution from Bricks and Mortar Healthcare to Connected, Digital Care including topics such as Personalized Medicine and Whole Person Care, Smart Health Communities, Virtual and Home-based Care, etc. and the opportunities for Health Informatics professionals

- New Roles, New Partnerships for Health Informatics Leaders

  Discover emerging career and collaboration opportunities: Chief Health Information Officer, Chief Digital Officer, Chief Innovation Officer, Chief Patient Experience Officer, Chief Medical Information Officer and more.

- Magic Wand Exercise: What is the one thing you would fix at your organization

  Interactive problem solving and creative solutions discussion for real world challenges

- Value of Health Informatics

  Understand what made us successful in the past and what will make us successful in the future

- Building a Business Case for Change

  Leading change can be difficult. A business case, outcomes and return on investment, and plan for change are essential capabilities.

Tuesday, June 20th

- KLAS Research: The EHR v. Emerging Technologies

  The Arch Collaborative brings together hundreds of organizations to unlock the power of the EHR to revolutionize healthcare quality and improve the EHR experience. Learn how we can apply these lessons learned to emerging technologies

Attendees are invited to submit topics they want covered in the during discussions. Conversations will focus on important issues, challenges and opportunities for health informatics leaders. Example topics covered in past sessions include:

- Team Building
- Executive Presence and C-Suite Politics
- Personal Time Management
- How to Say "No"
- Balancing the IT-Informatics Relationship
- Organization Design
- Navigating Regulatory Change
- Managing Expectations
- Funding Challenges and Cost Reduction
- Managing Vendors
- Analytics and AI
- Patient Engagement and Activation
- Burden Reduction
- And other attendee-suggested topics

- Bonus Session for CRASH Course Participants: Tuesday afternoon AMDIS intensive on Digital Health